

FAITH at WORK

July & August 2021

Sisters and Brothers in Christ –

You may have noticed that we are doing something a little bit different in our Sunday morning worship. We are following the semi-continuous story of David and his children.

David is a complicated figure. If you read through 1st and 2nd Samuel, we find that David's life is not that of a saint who unflinchingly does the right thing. Instead David is someone with monumental successes and failures.

David's brokenness with Bathsheba is well known (2nd Samuel 11). He is also at times in his life a mercenary for hire, working for Israel's enemies the Philistines (1st Samuel 27). He is arguably a failure as a parent (one of his children [Amnon] another child [half sister Tamar] and is murdered by another child [half brother] Absalom 2nd Samuel 13). David's reign knows tremendous amounts of war and even a revolt by one of his sons (Absalom in 2nd Samuel 15 – 16).

In many ways, David is a failure. When he is a part of the army of Israel during the time Saul is king, David keeps his thoughts (and emotions) close to the chest, he feels like a politician (consider David's few words in the later part of 1st Samuel). David doesn't feel like a model of what we should follow or aspire to, except in one manner.

David puts his faith and trust in God. When his life is going well, David gives thanks to God. When he is struggling, David gives thanks to God. When he is being rewarded for faithfulness, David recognizes that God is the ultimate author. When he is suffering, he recognizes that this is judgment from God on David's misdeeds – and deserved punishment. David knows that God is the author of creation and puts all trust, all honor, all sovereignty in the one who made the heavens and the earth.

Thus what is noteworthy about David, and why David is revered as Israel's greatest king is David's continued trust in God.

On June 6, 2021, Pope Francis noted that communion is not the meal of saints, it is the bread of sinners. As we gather at the table, it is worth remembering that all of us are, like David, sinners in the hands of a tender God, who welcomes us with compassion and mercy.

PRAYER

We are asking anyone in the prayer chain to lift up the concerns of Faith Lutheran Church weekly (which could be as little as taking a few seconds and asking God to be with all of those listed, lifting them up by name) and to pray for other concerns as they are shared. Peggy Preston will be heading up the prayer chain. If you are interested in being on the prayer chain, send her an email: pegpreston@aol.com

Wednesdays at 6:30 starting on July 7th at Albany Methodist Church (outside) 11:00 Zoom

Are you interested in learning more about racism and working toward God's realm of equality and justice? Join an in-person or online study of Robin DiAngelo's book White Fragility: Why It's So Hard for White People to Talk about Racism. We will start on July 7th and meet each Wednesday for seven weeks through August 18th. If you are interested, please purchase the book.

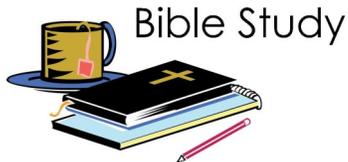

The online study will be from 11:00 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. and will meet via Zoom <https://us02web.zoom.us/j/81001168163?pwd=SXdsS3dUU3J6TXB4WE5mWmN3TUlvUT09>. The in-person study will be from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. outdoors in the courtyard of Albany First United Methodist Church, 1115 28th Ave. SW. You must be fully vaccinated to attend the in-person book study.

Before the first class, buy White Fragility and read the Foreword, Author's Note, Introduction, and chapter 1. Leaders for both the online and in-person studies are Father Bob from St. Alban's Episcopal Church, Pastor Mark from Faith Lutheran Church, and Pastor Lura from Albany First United Methodist Church.

For the evening study at Albany First United Methodist Church please go to 1115 28th Ave SW at 6:30. Bring a chair if you are able, be prepared to sit apart socially distanced and wearing a mask (these are the rules of our sister congregation). Also you might note that their rules are different than ours (vaccinated and unvaccinated are welcome at our activities, we just follow OHA guidelines regarding masks etc.) Since they are hosting, they make their own policy.

Afternoon Bible Study at 1 PM Monday's

June 21, 27, July 12, 19, 26 & Aug. 2, 9, 16, 23, 30

Bible Study

We are going to be studying (I need to confirm this) the gospel of Mark on Mondays at 1. We are going to be diving in to the first written of all the gospels, the earliest record we have of the life of Jesus.

Since we are in the second year of the lectionary cycle, we are also going to be studying the primary gospel for our worship as well.

The group has been meeting over Zoom over the course of the pandemic and will at least start that way (some of the folks who have been joining us are friends who live a long ways away). Look for the email with a link in it. The group will determine when we transition to in person – I suspect that this will happen in July (on July 12th as we are not meeting July 5th).

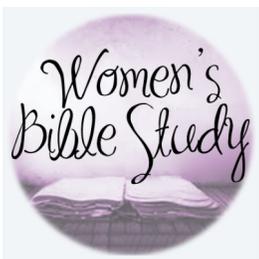

New Office Hours in July & August: 10 AM to 2 PM

As the 4th of July is a federal holiday (and Sunday) the office will be closed on July 5th. The office will be open MWF for the rest of the summer. Carol Armstrong will be working in the office from 10 AM to 2 PM while Nance is away. Please welcome her if you get a chance.

A Note from
Mary Sabatka-Gamet

Now that I'm back to the beautiful state of Oregon I want to thank everyone who kept me in their prayers over the last 8 weeks. This experience is unlike anything I've ever experienced and I don't know if I'll ever had the words to describe what it was like at Fort Bliss. Thank you especially to Pastor Mark for his weekly check in, the bible study group who let me listen in, and the technical people who made it possible for me to 'be at church' with everyone on Sundays. It gave me the strength I needed to get through the long, difficult days. Blessings to all!

Mary Martha Circle

This is a monthly bible study for all women. We will be meeting on Second Tuesday of Each Month @ 1 PM (In the Fellowship Room) . Please join us and bring a friend! If you would like more information, please call Karen Glenn at 541-928-4729 or Shirley Karstens at 541-967-8309

Small Groups Meetings

Small groups may now meet at the church. For a small group to meet they must have a Key Contact or Liaison who will schedule a meeting, and fill out a form for the group (available at the door by the church office or online).

Mask Policy

Oregon has changed their mask guidance and we are updating our policy to go along with it. All along the council has abided by the guidelines. Accordingly starting this Sunday if you show proof of vaccination to ushers as you are checked in, you may be unmasked in Faith Lutheran Church.

Proof vaccination is a vaccination card showing that you are two weeks out from your second dose of Pfizer or Moderna or two weeks out from your single dose of Johnson & Johnson. This follows state guidelines, which you can find here (page 3 applies to faith communities): <https://sharedsystems.dhsoha.state.or.us/DHSForms/Served/le3727.pdf>

You only have to show proof of vaccination if you wish to be unmasked. You can of course continue to enter while masked without showing vaccination proof. All are welcome!

Quilting and TOMS Wednesdays at 9 am

Wednesday mornings are a busy time at Faith Lutheran Church. We have quilters tirelessly working to give people warmth, privacy and shelter. The TOMS (stands for The Old Men, though age and gender are not requirements for the group) tirelessly work to keep our church property humming and our grounds clean.

At midmorning, the groups break for an opportunity for fellowship and time together. If you have some spare time and a desire for company, it might be a nice time to stop by Faith to see what's going on.

Also a thank you to our tireless volunteers who have been working to keep things going here – both for our service to others and helping keep Faith Lutheran Church humming.

August 1 - National Friendship Day

National Friendship Day occurs every year on the first Sunday of August — August 1, 2021 and celebrates the importance of loving platonic relationships. Friendships are the purest type of human relationships. For more than a century, we've celebrated the strength of friendship, and thanks to social media, we're able to continue celebrating with our friends no matter where they are in the world.
